

TAKEN FROM HIS FAMILY BY THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT: HELP US FIND YILIASIJIANG REHEMAN

In China, Uyghur people are being rounded up and forced into internment camps. Two years ago, Yiliyasijiang Reheman and his wife Mairinisha Abuduaini were expecting their second baby. They were studying in Egypt - far away from their home in the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region of China, where Uyghur people and other mainly Muslim ethnic people face daily discrimination.

But their lives were shattered in July 2017 when the Egyptian authorities started rounding up hundreds of Uyghur people in Egypt and handing them over to the Chinese government. The family tried to flee from Egypt - but Yiliyasijiang didn't make it onto the plane. He hasn't been seen since.

Around 200 students were rounded up that day – 16 of them were deported to China. Since 2017 up to 1 million mainly Muslim people have been torn from their families and locked up in these camps in China.

Just after he was taken away, Yiliyasijiang's daughter was born. Mairinisha has been searching for her husband, never losing hope that their family will one day be reunited. "Our children need their father. I will never give up until we can be reunited with my husband" said Mairinisha.

Sign the petition and call on the Chinese government to release Yiliyasijiang Reheman and close the political 're-education' camps', disclose the whereabouts of the people kept in the camps and ensure while detained that they have access to family members and lawyers of their choice.
